RUTH'S SONG (Shadow)

By Yoshie Fruchter
from the CD "Beyond the Book"

Say what you will, I don't think that I can be convinced now
I'll stay with you still, you're all I have, I'm with you till the end now

I'll go where you go
I'll be your shadow

We've lost the things so dear to us What choices do we have?
I'm stricken by the sense that I must walk a different path
And when we find what we're looking for We'll know the joy we had before Until then I'm not turning back my friend

Our hunger won't subside, and how much have we cried for ones we love now
A place I've never been, is calling from within for me to go now

I'll go where you go
I'll be your shadow

Your people are mine, I've known it all this time but it's so clear now In a thousand years I feel, our friendship will be sealed upon their minds now

I'll go where you go
I'll be your shadow
