

It Was You

Performed by Dan Nichols

If there ever was/Somebody who
Saw right into me/It was You

You were right/I was wrong
You were there/All along
I turned away from
All that I possessed
The monsters of my ego
Refused to let me rest

You were in this place
I never even knew
Now every step that I retrace
Leads me back to You

If there ever was/Somebody who
Saw right into me/It was You
With the desert in my mouth

I tried hard to shape the words
For everything I'd seen here
And everything I'd heard
Exhausted and depressed
I laid my head against a stone
The monsters of my ego
Thought I was all alone

You were in this place
I never even knew
Now every step that I retrace
Leads me back to You

If there ever was/Somebody who
Saw right into me/It was You
If there ever was/Somebody who
Knew all about me/It was You

It Was You
