

Generations

Performed by Blue Fringe

Generations are in my veins, it's a call to another way
In a world of instant flash it makes you stop.
Stop and think about a promise that I can't forget it's a memory I don't recall
but it keeps me wandering through desert sand

Meatah v'ad olam [from now until forever]

Generations are in my way
It's a call to a longer stay in a world of sacrifices and rewards

Meatah v'ad olam [from now until forever]

L'dor va dor nagid gadlecha
[from generation to generation we will speak about Your greatness]

As his life shines across the street he keeps a light on for me to sleep
It's a call, call back to me come, come back to me

Meatah v'ad olam [from now until forever]

L'dor va dor nagid gadlecha
[from generation to generation we will speak about Your greatness]

Minutes hide from second hands as I am waiting for the time
When I will follow in the lines that they have drawn from deep within

L'dor va dor nagid gadlecha
[from generation to generation we will speak about Your greatness]

In a world of instant flash it calls me back

Generations

From the Album "70 Faces"

© Blue Fringe and James Katz

www.bluefringe.com