

Hineni

Performed by Sam Glaser

I wasn't there when He talked to Abraham
I wasn't there when Moses freed the slaves
I would have walked
Right up to that Burning Bush
But I wasn't there, and Moses was

I wasn't there
When Judah led the Maccabees
I wasn't there when Esther took a stand
In every age we get to make a choice
To rise up and take a stand
Or ignore the outstretched hand

Chorus:
But if I'm here, God, and if I can help
Let me be the one who is the first to say
Oh, if I'm here, God, and if I can help
Let me be the one who is the first to
say

I'm going to be the one
Who is the first to say

Hineni

I wasn't there on the eve of Krystallnacht
I wasn't there when they packed the trains
Millions were crying
Could nobody hear a sound
I wasn't there but I feel the pain

Chorus

B'Chol Dor Vador Chayav Adam
Livot
Et Atzmo K'ilu Hu Yatzah
Mimitzrayim

Here I am. (Bereishit 22:1)

In every generation you must see yourself as if you left Egypt. (Shemot 3:4)

Hineni

From the album "Hineni"

Music and Lyrics by Sam Glaser, Hebrew Lyric from Liturgy.

Produced by Sam Glaser from Glaser Musicworks, L.A. CA
www.samglaser.com